GRIER HAS LED FOUR STRAIGHT WINNING CAMPAIGNS AS GENERAL MANAGER

General Manager Chris Grier has constructed a talented roster that gives Miami a chance to compete each season, as the Dolphins finished 11-6 in 2023 and made the playoffs for the second straight year. It was also the first time Miami won 11 games in 15 years.

FOUR STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS

The Dolphins are one of just four NFL teams (Kansas City, Buffalo and Pittsburgh) who have posted winning records in the last four seasons.

The 2020-23 seasons marked the first time since 1997-2003 the Dolphins have had four straight winning campaigns.

McDANIEL LED DOLPHINS TO BACK-TO-BACK PLAYOFF BERTHS

The Miami Dolphins named Mike McDaniel head coach on Feb. 7, 2022. As a first-time head coach, McDaniel made quite the impact in his first two seasons leading the Dolphins.

BACK-TO-BACK PLAYOFF BERTHS

Head Coach Mike McDaniel led the Dolphins to the playoffs in each of his two seasons as head coach. It was Miami's first back-to-back trip to the playoffs since 1997-2001, when they had five consecutive playoff berths.

McDaniel became just the third coach in Dolphins history to make the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm, joining Hall of Famer Don Shula (1970-71) and Dave Wannstedt (2000-01).

OFFENSE MAKES BIG STRIDES UNDER McDANIEL

McDaniel calls Miami's offensive plays and the offense made big strides since he arrived in 2022. Here is a look at how the offense performed the year before McDaniel's arrival (2021) compared to the two seasons McDaniel has been at the helm.

In 2023, Miami led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years. The team also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59).

DOLPHINS FINISH WITH 4,000-YARD PASSER, 1,000-YARD RUSHER AND TWO 1,000-YARD RECEIVERS

For the first time in team history, the Dolphins had a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Miami accomplished all of this before the end of Week 16, with two full games still remaining.

QB Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL with 4,624 passing yards. RB Raheem Mostert ranked 10th with 1,012 rushing yards. WR Tyreek Hill led the NFL with 1,799 receiving yards and WR Jaylen Waddle finished with 1,014 receiving yards.

TAGOVAILOA WAS THE NFL'S LEADER IN PASSING YARDS

QB Tua Tagovailoa passed for 4,624 yards in 2023. The total was a career high for the fourth-year quarterback and led all NFL players this year:

Tagovailoa finished fifth in passer rating (101.1), tied for fifth in passing touchdowns (29) and second in yards per attempt (8.3) this season. He and San Francisco QB Brock Purdy are the only NFL players to post a 100+ passer rating in each of the past two years.

His 4,624 passing yards were the third-most in franchise history behind only Marino's record-breaking 5,084 passing yards in 1984 and his 4,746 yards in 1986.

Tagovailoa threw 29 touchdown passes in the regular season, which was fifth-most in Dolphins history.

In September, Tagovailoa became the first Dolphins player in 30 years to win AFC Offensive Player of the Month (Scott Mitchell, 1993).

TUA POSTS BEST COMPLETION PERCENTAGE IN TEAM HISTORY

QB Tua Tagovailoa completed 388-of-560 passes this season, good for a 69.3 completion percentage.

His 69.3 completion percentage was the best in a season in Dolphins history by nearly a full percentage point:

The 31-year-old Mostert became the second-oldest player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards for the first time in his career. The only player who was older was Pittsburgh RB John Henry Johnson, who topped 1,000 rushing yards (1,141) for the first time in his career in 1962 at the age of 33.

Mostert was the first player in his 30s to rush for 1,000+ yards since Washington RB Adrian Peterson ran for 1,042 yards in 2018 at the age of 33.

DOLPHINS BROKE MULTIPLE TEAM RUSHING RECORDS

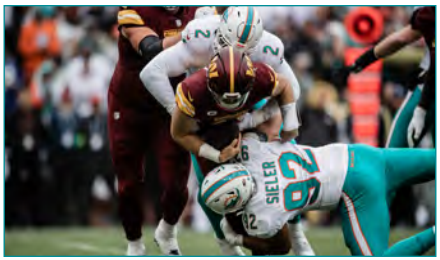
Miami recorded a sack in every game in the 2023 regular season and had a nine-game streak with multiple sacks snapped in Week 14 vs. Tennessee. It was tied for the second-longest such streak in team history and just one shy of the team record. Miami led the NFL with 27.0 sacks from Week 11 through the end of the season.



The Dolphins had two players record double-digit sacks in LB Bradley Chubb (11.0) and DT Zach Sieler (10.0). It is just the third time since individual sacks have been tracked by the NFL (since 1982) that Miami had two players with 10+ sacks in the same season.

Miami also did this in 2003 (DE Adewale Ogunleye & DE Jason Taylor) and 2000 (DE Trace Armstrong & DE Jason Taylor). Prior to 2023, no Dolphin had 10+ sacks in a season since DE Cameron Wake did in 2017.

DT Christian Wilkins added 9.0 more sacks, making this the only Dolphins team to ever have three players with 9+ sacks in a season.

MIAMI HAD FOUR PICK-SIXES IN 2023

The Dolphins defense scored on interceptions returned for touchdowns four times this season.

The last time Miami had four pick-sixes in a season was 2001. It was the second-most in the NFL this season behind only Dallas (five) and just one shy of the team record of five set in 2001.

LB Jerome Baker had a 22-yard pick-six off Eagles QB Jalen Hurts in Week 7 at Philadelphia.

S Jevon Holland had the third-longest interception return for a touchdown in team history when he took one back 99 yards at the end of the first half in Week 12 at the N.Y. Jets.

In Week 13, LB Andrew Van Ginkel had a 33-yard pick-six off Washington QB Sam Howell.

In Week 14, DT Zach Sieler intercepted Tennessee QB Will Levis and returned it five yards for a score.

It was the first time in Dolphins history they've recorded a pick-six in three consecutive games. Miami is one of just six NFL teams to have a three-game streak since the year 2000:

Sieler came one yard shy of making it four straight games with a defensive score when he was tackled at the 1-yard line on a fumble return in Week 15 vs. the N.Y. Jets. Miami scored on the next play.

DEFENSE NOTES

The Dolphins finished the season with a takeaway in 12 straight games, including the postseason contest. No other team had an active streak longer than four games at the end of Wild Card weekend. It is the longest streak by the team since the 2020 season, when Miami had takeaways in 13 consecutive contests.

MIAMI'S DEFENSE EXCELLED AT HOME

The Dolphins posted a 7-2 mark in home games in 2023, and the defense played a big part in the success at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Dolphins defense allowed just 13 offensive touchdowns in nine home games in 2023. Miami's 14.2 points allowed on defense per home game was third in the NFL.

Miami allowed just 78.4 rushing yards per game at home, which was best in the NFL by more than five yards per game. The Dolphins also ranked in the top 10 at home in first downs allowed (T-6th, 17.2) and third-down conversions (7th, 34.5).

DEFENSE HAD SEVERAL NOTABLE GAMES IN 2023

Miami's defense came up big in several different games during the 2023 season.

WEEK 1 – AT L.A. CHARGERS

With less than two minutes remaining, the Dolphins led by two and needed a stop to win the game. On first down, pressure from CB Justin Bethel forced Herbert to throw the ball away and take an intentional grounding penalty. On second down, DT Zach Sieler brought down Herbert for a loss of 8 yards. Then on fourth-and-12, Bethel and LB Jaelan Phillips split a sack to win the game. It was Bethel's 177th career game and his first sack.

WEEK 2 – AT NEW ENGLAND

New England got the ball with just over two minutes remaining near midfield, needing a touchdown to tie or win the game. LB Bradley Chubb had a big first-down sack of QB Mac Jones. A few plays later, New England had a fourth-down play that ended with a lateral and S Jevon Holland and LB Andrew Van Ginkel making a defensive stop just short of the line to gain.

WEEK 3 – VS. DENVER

Helped the Dolphins score 70 points by recording three takeaways in the contest, giving the Dolphins offense starting field position inside Denver's 10-yard line twice.

S Jevon Holland had two of those takeaways when he forced fumbles by Denver WR Courtland Sutton. One was recovered by LB Andrew Van Ginkel and returned to the Denver 3-yard line, and the other was recovered by CB Kader Kohou down the field. Another Holland forced fumble was recovered by the Broncos. His three forced fumbles were the most in a game by any Dolphins player since at least 1991.

WEEK 5 – VS. N.Y. GIANTS

Held the N.Y. Giants without an offensive touchdown and limited them to just 268 total yards and only 85 rushing yards.

WEEK 9 – AT KANSAS CITY (IN GERMANY)

Limited two-time NFL MVP QB Patrick Mahomes to his lowest regular-season passing output (185) since 2021.

WEEK 11 – VS. LAS VEGAS

Held the Raiders to their lowest rushing total in six years (36).

WEEK 12 – AT N.Y. JETS

Limited the Jets to their lowest rushing output in 17 years (29 yards).

WEEK 13 – AT WASHINGTON

Miami held the NFL's leading passer at the time (Sam Howell) to a career-low 120 passing yards.

WEEK 15 – VS. N.Y. JETS

The Dolphins posted their first shutout since Oct. 18, 2020, also vs. the Jets. Despite missing five defensive starters due to injury, Miami had four takeaways and held the Jets to just 103 total yards. It was the second-fewest yards allowed by the Dolphins in any game in team history:

RAMSEY TOTALED THREE INTERCEPTIONS AFTER RETURN FROM INJURY

CB Jalen Ramsey missed the first seven games of the 2023 season due to an injury suffered in training camp, but his presence was immediately felt when he returned, and he earned a Pro Bowl selection in his first year with Miami.

In the 10 regular-season games Ramsey played, he picked off three passes, which was tied for seventh in the NFL since his return in Week 8.

In Ramsey's first Dolphins game, he intercepted a pass by Patriots QB Mac Jones and returned it 49 yards near the end of the first half, leading to a field goal that gave Miami a 17-7 halftime lead.

The seven-time Pro Bowl selection also forced a fumble in the second quarter that was ultimately nullified by a Patriots penalty.

Then in Week 11 vs. Las Vegas, he picked off QB Aidan O'Connell twice in the second half, including an interception in the end zone with less than a minute remaining in a one-score game, sealing Miami's victory and earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

PHILLIPS HAD SACKS IN FIVE STRAIGHT GAMES

LB Jaelan Phillips was limited to only eight games in 2023 due to injuries, but made an impact when he was on the field. His 6.5 sacks were fourth on the team.

Prior to his season-ending injury in Week 12, Phillips had a sack in five straight games. His five-game sack streak was tied for the fourth-longest streak in the NFL in 2023 and is the longest by a Dolphin since DE Emmanuel Ogbah's six-game streak in 2020.

LONG LED TEAM IN TACKLES IN HIS FIRST SEASON WITH DOLPHINS

LB David Long Jr. signed with Miami as an unrestricted free agent from Tennessee in 2023 and made an immediate impact with the Dolphins.

In 2023, Long started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 110 tackles (62 solo). It is the first 100-tackle season of his career. Long's nine tackles for loss were fourth on the team.

HOLLAND HAD STANDOUT PERFORMANCES THIS SEASON

S Jevon Holland finished the 2023 season with three forced fumbles, tied for 11th-most in the NFL.

His most memorable moment of the season came at the end of the first half on Black Friday at the N.Y. Jets. On a Hail Mary attempt on the final play of the half, Holland picked off the pass and ran it back 99 yards for a touchdown. It was the third-longest interception return for a touchdown in Dolphins history and gave Miami a 17-6 halftime lead.

In the Week 1 win at the L.A. Chargers, he recorded a career-high 14 tackles (10 solo). It was the most tackles by a Dolphins player since LB Jerome Baker had 16 on Sept. 13, 2020 at New England.

All three of Holland's forced fumbles came in the Week 3 win vs. Denver. It was the first time since at least 1991 a Dolphins player forced at least three fumbles in a game and he became the first NFL player to force three fumbles in a game since 2020, when three players did it (Randy Gregory, Foye Oluokun and Haason Reddick).

HOWARD LEADS THE NFL IN INTERCEPTIONS SINCE 2017

CB Xavien Howard is a four-time Pro Bowl player (2018, 2020-22) and recorded one interception and 12 passes defensed in 2023.

He joined Philadelphia CB James Bradberry as the only NFL players with 12+ passes defensed in each of the past four seasons (2020-23).

Howard's 29 career interceptions are tied for fourth in Dolphins history and are the most in the NFL since 2017.

His 95 career passes defensed are the second-most in team history (Sam Madison, 104) since passes defensed began being tracked in 1991.

2023 MIAMI DOLPHINS PRO BOWL SELECTIONS

TYREEK HILL NAMED UNANIMOUS FIRST-TEAM ALL-PRO

2023 MIAMI DOLPHINS TEAM AWARD WINNERS

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. – The Miami Dolphins announced their team award winners for the 2023 regular season. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill was voted the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player, fullback Alec Ingold earned the Don Shula Leadership Award, offensive lineman Austin Jackson was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner and linebacker Bradley Chubb earned the Nat Moore Community Service Award.

Hill is the first Dolphins player to win the MVP award in consecutive seasons since 1997-98, when wide receiver O.J. McDuffie did so. He joins McDuffie, quarterback Dan Marino and quarterback Bob Griese as the only Dolphins players to win the award in back-to-back years. This award is voted on by South Florida media who regularly cover the team and was re-named the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player Award in 2000 to reflect the achievements of the Hall of Fame quarterback and 12-time team MVP.

Hill had a record-breaking season, catching 119 passes for 1,799 yards (15.1 avg.) and 13 touchdowns. His 1,799 receiving yards broke his single-season team record of 1,710 set in 2022 and was the seventh-most in a season in NFL history. Hill became the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in receiving yards. His 119 receptions tied the franchise record he set in 2022 and his 13 touchdown receptions were tied for most in the NFL this season and ranked third in team history.

Ingold was named the winner of the Don Shula Leadership Award, which is voted on by the players and given to the teammate who best exhibits leadership on and off the field. He is the first fullback to ever win the award. It was re-named the Don Shula Leadership Award in 2005 to reflect the accomplishments of the Hall of Fame coach and was first awarded in 1989.

Ingold played in all 17 games with 13 starts this season. He totaled 13 receptions for a career-high 119 yards (9.2 avg.), tied for the most receiving yards by any fullback in the league. Ingold was the lead blocker for a rushing attack that set a team record in rushing average (5.06 yards per carry) and rushing touchdowns (27). He helped the Dolphins rank No. 1 in total offense (401.3 yards per game), something Miami hadn't done since 1994.

Jackson is a first-time recipient of the team's Ed Block Courage Award, which is selected by the Dolphins' athletic training staff and symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. The honoree also is a community role model. He entered the 2022 season as the starting right tackle, a position he had not played in his professional career. Jackson suffered an ankle injury in the first half of the first game of the season. He rehabbed relentlessly to return in Week 12 as Miami's starting right tackle. But in his first game back, he re-injured his ankle, ending his season. Jackson worked hard to get himself back to the field and remain durable in 2023 and he's done just that, starting 16 of Miami's 17 games, the most of any Dolphins offensive lineman. He helped the Dolphins lead the NFL in total offense (401.3), something Miami hadn't done since 1994. While protecting quarterback Tua Tagovailoa's blindside, Jackson helped the Dolphins offensive line lead the NFL with just 59 quarterback hits allowed.

Chubb is this year's winner of the Nat Moore Community Service Award, given annually to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community. Since joining the Dolphins at the trade deadline in 2022, Chubb has regularly supported many initiatives to improve life for children in the South Florida community. Since founding the Chubb Foundation with his brother, he focuses his efforts on activating human potential through youth mentorship, financial literacy, entrepreneurship and physical education. He is a regular presence at Junior Dolphins events, participating in several youth clinics over the summer. This season, Chubb partnered with South Florida Motorsports and the F1 in Schools program to support students from the SEEK Foundation's STEM program at Bunche Park in Miami Gardens. He visited local Boys & Girls Clubs to engage with and mentor students, and earlier this season, he joined teammate Robbie Chosen to surprise the South Plantation High School football team with gear, equipment and cleats. During the holiday season, Chubb hosted several events for pediatric patients at local hospitals, as well as a surprise toy giveaway at the NFL YET Center Boys & Girls Club of Broward County with teammate Jaelan Phillips. Chubb also participates in many community Tuesday events the Dolphins host during the season. This award was named after former Dolphins player and Honor Roll member Nat Moore in 1987, who spent 13 seasons in a Dolphins uniform and made an equally profound impact off the field, which he continues to this day as a senior vice president for the team.

HARD ROCK STADIUM

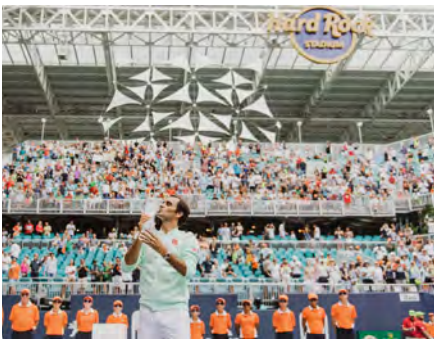
A Global Entertainment Destination

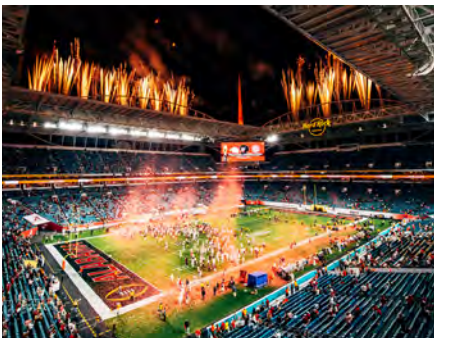
HISTORY & TRADITION

The multi-purpose, open-air complex completed a multi-year renovation fine-tuned to enhance the fan experience and transforming the venue to an epicenter of culture, innovation and spectacle. The stadium has hosted six Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI, XLIV and LIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl, four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009 and 2013) and one College Football Playoff National Championship game (2021).

DESIGN

Hard Rock Stadium is a global entertainment destination that recently completed a $755 million, multi-year renovation privately funded by Managing General Partner & Chairman of the Board Stephen Ross to transform the iconic venue into the best Miami has to offer in world-class fare, art, culture and an elevated guest experience. Every aspect of the facility was touched during the renovation. New seating experiences were introduced within the bowl as well as five new premium clubs. The renovation brought four high-definition video boards and the installation of a state-of-the-art canopy that keeps as many as 91 percent of guests in the shade. Remodeled, modernized suites throughout the stadium offer a more intimate club space with improved amenities and food, as well as the addition of theatre boxes and four new corner clubs. The venue boasts remodeled suites with improved amenities and food as well as new landscaping bringing nearly 58,000 new trees and shrubs to the exterior of the stadium.





ART

Hard Rock Stadium partnered with Goldman Global Arts (GGA) for one of the world's largest indoor street art galleries. Stephen Ross, inspired by the murals that adorn Wynwood Arts District, tapped GGA for the curation of 19 murals by 18 artists from 10 different countries to transform the facility into a vibrant, monumental public art experience. The landmark #ArtUnexpected project looks to create an artistic legacy and cement Hard Rock Stadium as an iconic, world–class venue that reflects Miami's cultural significance in music, sports, entertainment and the arts.

SUSTAINABILITY

Hard Rock Stadium phased out 99.4% of single-use plastics, including for Super Bowl LIV. On December 22, 2019 the venue was the NFL's first to feature 20oz sustainable draft cups by Ball Corporation, eliminating more than 500,000 plastic cups annually. This will eliminate more than 2.8 million pieces of plastic annually including more than 600,000 plastic bottles. The effort is in collaboration with partners Sodexo Live! and PepsiCo.

The venue sustains a high diverted waste percentage annually through innovative sustainability efforts. This includes bio digesters and composting through liquid food digesters. Furthermore, kitchen oil is recovered into bio fuel, creating renewable energy. The facility sources products from local farms and donates its excess food to local missions. Additionally, the stadium has a no plastic straw policy, waterless urinals and touchless sensor faucets, sorting and recycling as well as energy efficient LED lighting, and a reduction on paper from mobile tickets and payments. Hard Rock Stadium is a proud member of the Green Sports Alliance.

TECHNOLOGY

Hard Rock Stadium maintains a commitment to providing its guests with the most innovative technology. With the recent 5G Ultra Wideband installation in partnership with Verizon, Hard Rock Stadium sits at the forefront of technological advancements and strives to make each experience for its guests as seamless and user-friendly as possible.

WORLD-CLASS FARE

Years later, this commitment to bring fresh, diverse flavor to guests remains strong. An emphasis is placed on innovative, local cuisine, and together with hospitality provider Sodexo Live! the venue curates an unparalleled food and beverage experience throughout the facility to all guests.

DOLPHINS CHALLENGE CANCER ANNOUNCES OPEN REGISTRATION AND NEW RIDE DISTANCES FOR DCC XIV IN SUPPORT OF INNOVATIVE CANCER RESEARCH AT SYLVESTER

DCC XIV Follows Record-Breaking Year, with Historic 5.6K Participants and $10.5M Raised for DCC XIII, Bringing the Event's 13-Year Total to $64M

The Miami Dolphins announced open registration for Dolphins Challenge Cancer XIV (DCC XIV) on Tuesday, Aug. 1. The signature event, scheduled to take place on Saturday, February 24, 2024, marks the 14th edition of the organization's commitment and support of funding innovative cancer research at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, a part of UHealth – the University of Miami Health System.

This past February, DCC XIII united a record-breaking 5,641 participants raising more than $10.5M under a "one team, one fight" mentality to challenge cancer and unite the South Florida community. Following a $75M commitment to Sylvester in November 2020, the largest known philanthropic pledge in the NFL, the DCC's 13-year total contribution now stands at $64M which funds the advancement of cancer care through breakthrough science, leading-edge technology and personalized patient care. With 100 percent of participant raised funds donated to Sylvester, the DCC's contributions have gone on to directly impact the South Florida community.

"This year is a memorable one for us here at the Miami Dolphins, as we saw the community and our partners come together for the unified purpose of raising yet another record-breaking contribution of over $10.5M in the fight against cancer. These funds are going directly into the South Florida community through Sylvester's efforts to thrive as a lifesaving cancer center," Miami Dolphins Challenge Cancer Executive Director Javier Sanchez said. "Reflecting on the success of this past year, we are excited to see what we are able to accomplish for DCC XIV at Hard Rock Stadium on February 24, 2024."

"We are incredibly fortunate to have a best-in-class organization like the Miami Dolphins as our partner in finding new cures for cancer," said Stephen D. Nimer, M.D., Director of Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center and holder of the Oscar de la Renta Endowed Chair in Cancer Research. "Their support of the local South Florida community and the many dedicated physicians and cancer researchers who work at Sylvester, through the Dolphins Challenge Cancer is unequalled. Every dollar of the millions of dollars raised each year at the DCC allows us to hire more world class doctors, to fund more innovative cancer research and to provide more prevention and life-saving care to our patients and the community. We all look forward to continuing to challenge cancer at DCC XIV on February 24, 2024."

This year, the DCC will bring a fresh take to its previous bike rides with new ride distances, named in honor of Miami Dolphins players in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. This includes the 13-mile Dan Marino ride presented by Aetna, the 39-mile Larry Csonka ride, the 54-mile Zach Thomas ride and the 99-mile Jason Taylor ride.

Leading into preparations to host the organization's 14th edition of the prominent community event, Miami Dolphins LB Jaelan Phillips and Elizabeth Jenkins, wife of the late Jason Jenkins, Miami Dolphins Senior Vice President of Communications & Community Affairs, will continue to serve as the Board of Directors Chairs for the second consecutive year.

The continued success of DCC XIV would not be possible without the efforts of many organizations and partners – most notably nine individuals including Tom Garfinkel of Team Miami Dolphins, Stuart Miller, Eric Feder, Jonathan Jaffe, and Rick Beckwitt of Team Lennar Corporation, Dr. Stephen Nimer and Bippy Siegal of the University of Miami's Team Hurricanes: Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, Adam Carlin of Team Hurricanes: Sylvester Board of Governors, and Jose Dans of Team WOW MKTG, which individually supported DCC XIII by raising more than $100K.

Dolphins Challenge Cancer was founded in 2010 by the Miami Dolphins organization as the signature initiative of the Foundation's health impact area and has become the largest fundraising event in the NFL. The DCC's purpose is to improve people's lives through financial support for innovative cancer research at Sylvester. Ranked among the top 50 of U.S. News & World Report's Best Hospitals in 2022, Sylvester is South Florida's only National Cancer Institute (NCI) designated cancer center. FB ALEC INGOLD NAMED MIAMI DOLPHINS NOMINEE FOR WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD PRESENTED BY NATIONWIDE

The Miami Dolphins announced fullback Alec Ingold as their nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award Presented by Nationwide. The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award presented by Nationwide is the league's most prestigious honor and acknowledges NFL players who excel on the field and demonstrate a passion for creating a lasting positive impact beyond the game in their communities.

Ingold joined the Dolphins in 2022 as a free agent and immediately set to work empowering, uplifting and inspiring within the South Florida community. Adopted at birth, Ingold found purpose in his story and dedicates much of his work to children in the adoption and foster care community. He officially founded the Ingold Family Foundation in 2022 to cultivate environments of inspiration and motivation, connecting youth with community leaders and fostering an ecosystem of excellence.

"We are proud to recognize Alec as our Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee and proud to have him represent the Miami Dolphins," said general manager Chris Grier. "Alec demonstrates excellence on the field on daily basis, but his leadership and positive influence on others off the field is even more exemplary. He was voted a captain this year by his teammates, which is the highest recognition of respect inside the team. This honor only underlines the impact Alec has had and continues to have, both on the Dolphins and the South Florida community."

Through his foundation, he helps local youth transform their dreams into tangible goals by providing necessary support to achieve that success through mentorship opportunities, mental health advocacy, physical education, entrepreneurship and financial literacy. Ingold founded the Money Minicamp program to enhance financial literacy at schools in underprivileged communities and dedicated his time to support youth at risk of aging out of foster care.

In his first season in South Florida, Ingold began partnering with Children's Home Society of Florida, an organization whose mission centers around child welfare services, including foster care and adoption. In 2023, he partnered with CHS to host a free summer camp for youth who are in foster care or have been adopted. Ingold engaged with kids as they took part of the camp and was able to connect with the students and find similarities in their emotional journeys. He channels his efforts into meaningful partnerships with multiple organizations dedicated to adoption and foster care advocacy including AdoptUSKids, ChildNet and The Barker Adoption Foundation. Ingold serves as a national spokesperson for AdoptUSKids and was awarded the 2022 Adoption Excellence Award through the Department of Health and Human Services in Washington D.C. earlier this year.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

Ingold utilizes the power of conversation to motivate and inspire, constantly seeking new mediums and avenues to reach unique audiences. In 2023, he has led "Mindset" panels in partnership with Lululemon, connecting with community members by sharing his journey through his own adoption story and adversities. He delivered a speech for the Coconut Creek Police Department's "Do The Right Thing" initiative that recognizes local youth for exemplary behavior and served as a guest judge for the Jason Taylor Foundation's poetry slam. He also delivered a testimony talk for God Behind Bars and the commencement speech for 2023 Miami-Dade College graduates and hosted a Mental Health Mastery panel. In athletics, Ingold conducts mindset coaching in monthly calls with four college athletes across the country and delivered a motivational speech for the Miami Edison youth lacrosse program. Ingold also authored his own book, "The Seven Crucibles," detailing his journeys through life and injury adversity and sharing tools for readers to utilize in their own paths, which was published in February 2023. At the Junior Dolphins Coaches Clinic, Ingold engaged with more than 500 local youth football coaches on the importance of their impact in their players' lives and gifted participants with a copy of the book.

Ingold has been committed to supporting team community events, aligning own passion to help youth succeed through physical education and academic excellence. During the 2023 season, Ingold helped surprise the South Broward High School football team by delivering football gear, equipment and cleats to enhance their football program in partnership with Junior Dolphins. Ingold also visited STEM students of the S.E.E.K Foundation at Bunche Park in Miami Gardens, Fla. He joined students as they took part in the lesson plan and learned to build and code Lego robots.

This marks the second season Ingold has been selected as a team nominee for the award. He was previously chosen as the Las Vegas Raiders' 2020 Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee.

As a nominee, Ingold wore a Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year helmet decal through the end of the season in recognition of his accomplishments on and off the field.

All 32 nominees will be recognized for their achievements during the week leading up to Super Bowl LVIII. The 2023 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year winner will be announced during NFL Honors, a primetime awards special to air nationally on CBS on Thursday, Feb. 8.

Each nominee will receive up to a $55,000 donation, and the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award winner will receive a $250,000 donation to the charity of his choice. All donations are made possible by the NFL Foundation and Nationwide.

There was 1:45 remaining on the clock after quarterback Tua Tagovailoa gave the Dolphins a 36-34 lead with his third touchdown pass and 466th passing yard of the day. The Miami defense needed to come up with a stop. And when it mattered most, they got it done.

First came pressure up the middle from veteran cornerback Justin Bethel, which forced an intentional grounding penalty on Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler then sacked Herbert for an eight-yard loss. On fourth-and-12, linebacker and Southern California native Jaelan Phillips combined with Bethel to take down Herbert once again and seal the Week 1 victory for Miami Sunday afternoon at SoFi Stadium.

Tagovailoa's 466 passing yards was the second-best mark of his career and fourth-best in a season-opening game in NFL history. Two of his three touchdowns went to wide receiver Tyreek Hill, who finished with 215 receiving yards, the third-most ever in a season-opener.

The Chargers began the second half with an 11-play, 75-yard drive to take a 24-20 lead and then forced a second Dolphins turnover on a deep pass intended for Berrios.

But the Dolphins defense stepped up, specifically second-year cornerback Kader Kohou. Kohou wrapped up wide receiver Mike Williams on a screen pass that yielded just one yard. He then stopped wide receiver Keenan Allen a yard short of the first down marker to set up third-and-1. Kohou ended the drive flying off the edge on a blitz, sacking Herbert at the one-yard line and giving the Dolphins offense great starting field position after the ensuing punt.

On the very next play, Tagovailoa found Hill in stride for a 35-yard touchdown pass to take a 27-24 lead with 2:18 to play in the third quarter.

In a game that featured nine lead changes, Tagovailoa eventually found himself down 34-30 late in the fourth quarter with the ball and a chance to take the lead for good.

Facing third-and-10 from the Miami 25-yard line, he stepped up in the pocket, escaped the pressure and launched a deep pass down the sideline to a streaking Hill for 47 yards. Tagovailoa faced another third down and found Hill again on a perfect throw to the corner of the endzone, this time for a four-yard touchdown.

Miami's defense did the rest and the Dolphins escaped with a thrilling 36-34 victory.

MIAMI 24 | NEW ENGLAND 17

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	3	14	0	7	24
New England	0	3	0	14	17

For the second week in a row, the Miami Dolphins defense came up with a game-winning fourth down stop to seal a victory, this time by the score of 24-17 over New England on Sunday Night Football.

On fourth-and-4 from the Miami 33-yard line, cornerback Justin Bethel held former Dolphins tight end Mike Gesicki short of the line to gain. But before he hit the ground, Gesicki threw a lateral to offensive lineman Cole Strange. Strange was met immediately by safety Jevon Holland and linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel, who stopped him just short of the first-down marker to force a turnover on downs.

The Dolphins defense came through with drive-ending plays from the game's opening possession. First, linebacker David Long Jr. flew into the backfield and sacked quarterback Mac Jones for a nine-yard loss to set up third-and-21 and an eventual punt. Then outside linebacker Bradley Chubb ran down Patriots wide receiver Demario Douglas, knocked the ball loose, and safety DeShon Elliott recovered.

Those two plays led to points for the Dolphins offense. Miami's first drive spanned 81 yards on 13 plays over seven-plus minutes of game time and ended with a 23-yard field goal from Jason Sanders.

After Elliott's fumble recovery, running back Raheem Mostert found the end zone from eight yards out to give the Dolphins a 10-0 lead with 9:43 left to play in the first half.

Later in the second quarter, Elliott again came up with a big play, this time a pass-deflection on third-and-9 to end the Patriots drive and force a 49-yard field goal from kicker Chad Ryland.

Tagovailoa and the Dolphins offense returned to the field with 1:49 remaining in the half and a 10-3 lead. They came off the field 98 seconds later with a two-touchdown advantage.

A 22-yard completion to wide receiver River Cracraft put the ball in Patriots territory. Three plays later, Tagovailoa dropped in a perfect pass to wide receiver Braxton Berrios to set up first-and-goal from the New England two-yard line. A quick pass to Tyreek Hill stretched Miami's lead to 17-3 just before halftime. Tagovailoa ended the drive 7-for-7 for 69 yards and the half 15-for-20 for 181 yards.

As was the story in the first half, turnovers and negative plays fueled the Dolphins defense in the second. With the Patriots driving deep into Dolphins territory, cornerback Xavien Howard pulled in a toe-tap interception on a pass intended for former Dolphins wide receiver DeVante Parker.

Jones took advantage, scampering for an 18-yard run on third-and-15, and eventually finding tight end Hunter Henry for a six-yard score to make it 17-10 Miami. Later on, Mostert, who rushed for 121 yards, ran up the middle untouched for a 43-yard touchdown to extend Miami's lead to 14, 24-10. Stevenson scored on a two-yard run with 5:29 left to play but the Dolphins defense held on in the final minutes of the game to complete the team's second consecutive 2-0 start.

DENVER 20	MIAMI 70

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Denver	7	6	0	7	20
Miami	14	21	14	21	70

The Miami Dolphins turned in one of the greatest offensive performances in NFL history, scoring 10 touchdowns in a dominant 70-20 win over the Denver Broncos.

Miami became the first NFL team to score 70 points since Washington scored 72 in 1966. The Dolphins' 726 yards of total offense was the most in franchise history and nine yards shy of the NFL's all-time record set by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951. The team's 350 rushing yards also set a single-game franchise record.

Running backs De'Von Achane (4, 236) and Raheem Mostert (4, 142) combined for eight touchdowns and 378 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa finished with an efficient 309 yards and four touchdowns on 23-for-26 passing in just over three quarters of work. He posted the highest passer rating of his career at 155.8.

The raucous home crowd of 65,522 only had to wait 83 seconds for the fireworks to start.

On the third play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found wide receiver Tyreek Hill wide open in the middle of the field. Hill beat a Broncos defender to the near-corner pylon and gave Miami its first score of the game.

The Dolphins defense forced a quick three-and-out and back to the field came Tagovailoa. Nine plays later, Achane took his fourth career carry, eight yards into the end zone for his first NFL touchdown.

Tagovailoa finished the first half 16-of-16 for 206 yards, two touchdowns and a perfect 158.3 passer rating.

Mostert added two touchdowns in the third quarter and Achane, who broke the club's rookie rushing record and became the fifth different Dolphins player to rush for 200+ yards in a game, scored twice in the fourth quarter.

Hill led all receivers with nine receptions for 157 yards and a touchdown and has now scored in all three of Miami's games this season.

The offensive line allowed zero sacks for the second time this season.

The defense also turned in a quality performance, allowing just one offensive touchdown and forcing three turnovers, two of which gave the Dolphins starting field position inside the Broncos 10-yard line.

All three turnovers led to touchdowns on the following drive. Miami broke or tied at least 14 franchise records in the win.

MIAMI 20 | BUFFALO 48

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	7	7	6	0	20
Buffalo	14	17	10	7	48

The Miami Dolphins scored touchdowns on their first two possessions but could not keep up with a high-powered Buffalo Bills offense, falling on the road 48-20 at Highmark Stadium.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 282 yards and one touchdown and rookie running back De'Von Achane added 101 yards on eight carries (12.6 avg.) and two touchdowns in Miami's (3-1) first loss of the season.

Both teams scored on their first possession as the Bills drove 75 yards in eight plays and the Dolphins traveled 77 yards in seven plays. Buffalo quarterback Josh Allen found wide receiver Gabe Davis for six points while Achane found the end zone from three yards out.

Bills running back James Cook and Achane then exchanged rushing touchdowns as both teams showed their quality on offense.

The score was 14-14 with 12:47 to play in the second quarter after four possessions. Allen was 8-of-8 for 80 yards and Tagovailoa was 9-of-10 for 126 yards.

That's when Buffalo took control.

After amassing 142 yards on two touchdown drives to open the game, the Dolphins offense managed just 35 yards and zero first downs the rest of the half. The Bills, meanwhile, scored two more touchdowns and added a field goal to take a 31-14 lead into the break.

Miami opened the second half with an 11-play, 75-yard drive as Tagovailoa found wide receiver Braxton Berrios in the back of the end zone for his first touchdown as a Dolphin. But that would be the team's final score of the day.

Buffalo kicker Tyler Bass responded with a 33-yard field goal before an interception by safety Micah Hyde led to a touchdown pass from Allen to wide receiver Stefon Diggs, which gave Buffalo a 41-20 lead with three minutes to play in the third quarter. Allen added a 11-yard touchdown run at the beginning of the fourth quarter to put any chances of a Dolphins comeback to rest.

Allen finished with 320 passing yards and four touchdowns while Diggs led all receivers with 120 yards and three touchdowns.

Wide receiver Tyreek Hill led Miami with 58 yards on three catches.

N.Y. GIANTS 16	MIAMI 31

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
N.Y. Giants	0	10	3	3	16
Miami	7	10	14	0	31

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 308 yards and two touchdowns, wide receiver Tyreek Hill finished with 181 receiving yards and a touchdown and the Miami Dolphins improved to 4-1 for the first time since 2003 with a 31-16 victory over the New York Giants.

Hill's 181 yards came on eight receptions (22.6 avg.), while running back De'Von Achane finished with 11 carries for 151 yards (13.7 avg.) and a score.

The Dolphins almost doubled New York's offensive output (524-268) and averaged 9.7 yards per play to the Giants' 3.9.

Miami started with a touchdown on its opening drive for the third consecutive game. Three of the team's first four plays from scrimmage – a run by Achane and passes to wide receivers Jaylen Waddle and Cedrick Wilson Jr. – went for at least 20 yards.

On the eighth play of the drive, Tagovailoa found Waddle in the back of the end zone for his first touchdown reception of the season to put Miami up 7-0 in the first quarter.

The defense then forced a punt and Tagovailoa had the ball again looking for another score.

Right away, the fourth-year quarterback found Hill across the middle of the field for 18 yards. Achane then bolted through a hole and down the sideline for a 76-yard touchdown run.

It gave Miami a 14-0 lead and Achane his seventh touchdown of the season in just his fourth career game.

That two-touchdown lead was short-lived, however, as the Giants responded with a 55-yard field goal by kicker Graham Gano.

On the Dolphins next drive, Tagovailoa found Hill for a 64-yard gain but the possession stalled at the New York four-yard line. On third down, Tagovailoa's pass was tipped, intercepted by Giants safety Jason Pinnock and returned 102 yards for a touchdown.

A 40-yard field goal from Jason Sanders gave Miami a 17-10 lead heading into halftime.

The Dolphins started the second half like they did the first, with big plays and seven points. It took just 54 seconds before Tagovailoa connected with Hill for a 69-yard touchdown pass to put Miami back up two scores, 24-10.

Later in the third quarter, the Giants had another interception but Miami's defense stood strong and forced a 37-yard field goal from Gano to keep a two-score lead at 24-13 with 4:26 to play in the frame.

After a deep pass play to open the second-half scoring, the Dolphins leaned on the run game to finish off the third quarter. Seven of the offense's eight plays in the possession were runs, with the last, a two-yard run for Raheem Mostert, going for a touchdown.

The Dolphins entered the fourth quarter with 501 yards of total offense and a 31-13 lead. Gano knocked in a 51-yard field goal with just under nine minutes to play but the Dolphins defense would not let them get any closer.

CAROLINA 21	MIAMI 42

	1	2	3	4	F
Carolina	14	0	0	7	21

After falling behind 14-0 in the first quarter, the Miami Dolphins controlled the final 45 minutes of action, scoring 35 straight points en route to a 42-21 victory over the Carolina Panthers.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 262 yards and three touchdowns (126.0 passer rating) to help lead Miami to its first 5-1 start since 2002. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill followed up his 181-yard performance in Week 5 with six receptions for 163 yards (27.2 avg.) and one touchdown. Running back Raheem Mostert led the rushing attack with 115 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries (6.8 avg.).

The Panthers got off to a quick start on both sides of the ball, scoring touchdowns on their first two possessions and forcing Miami into consecutive three-and-outs to begin the game.

Carolina totaled 138 yards of offense on their opening two drives and jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind a six-yard touchdown run from running back Chuba Hubbard and an eight-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Bryce Young to wide receiver Adam Thielen.

But in the final 45:06 of game time, Miami outgained Carolina 419-158 and outscored the Panthers 42-7.

It all started with a 27-yard completion from Tagovailoa to Hill as the first quarter came to a close. Eight plays later, Tagovailoa found Mostert, who used a timely block from tight end Durham Smythe to reach the end zone untouched from three yards out.

On the following drive, the Dolphins defense and special teams stepped up. On fourth-and-8 from the Carolina 49-yard line, linebacker Duke Riley and defensive back Elijah Campbell forced Panthers wideout Laviska Shenault Jr. out of bounds short of the first-down marker after a fake-punt pass from punter Johnny Hekker.

That initial score by the Dolphins offense and stop by the defense began a five-touchdown stretch over six possessions for Miami. First, Tagovailoa rolled left and found Jaylen Waddle for a score. He then placed a deep pass to Hill in stride for a 41-yard touchdown. Two Mostert rushing touchdowns later flipped what was once a two-score lead for the Panthers into a 35-14 advantage for the Dolphins with 12:27 left to play in the game.

A 61-yard pick-six from Carolina cornerback Troy Hill brought the visitors back within 14 points with 4:26 left but the Dolphins responded just five plays later with a nine-yard touchdown run by Salvon Ahmed to give Miami a 42-21 lead and put the game away for good.

Mostert's three-touchdown performance helped set a new personal-best for total touchdowns in a season (11) while Tagovailoa recorded his eighth career game with at least three touchdown passes.

Defensively, Miami held its opponent to under 300 total yards of offense for the second straight game.

MIAMI 17 | PHILADELPHIA 31

SCORING SUMMARY

The Miami Dolphins continuously battled from behind and eventually tied the game at 17-17 on a pick-six with just over four minutes to play in the third quarter, but could not complete the second-half comeback, ultimately falling on the road 31-17 to the Philadelphia Eagles on Sunday Night Football.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa finished 23-of-32 for 216 yards, one touchdown and one interception while wide receivers Tyreek Hill and Jaylen Waddle combined for 17 of Miami's 23 receptions and 151 receiving yards.

Miami's defense held Philadelphia to a field goal on their opening possession and forced a fumble on their second.

On third-and-8, a group of Dolphins defenders collapsed the pocket and converged on Eagles quarterback Jalen Hurts. As Hurts tried to step up in the pocket, linebacker Bradley Chubb knocked the ball loose and defensive tackle Christian Wilkins fell on the ball to give the Dolphins offense first-and-10 at the Eagles 23-yard line.

A touchdown pass to Hill was called back on a holding penalty and Miami eventually had to settle for a 40-yard field goal from Jason Sanders.

The Eagles then scored consecutive touchdowns, first a 19-yard pass from Hurts to tight end Dallas Goedert and then a one-yard run from Hurts to take a 17-3 lead with 3:10 to play in the first half.

That's when the Dolphins offense found a bit of rhythm. On third-and-18 from his own 20-yard line, Tagovailoa hung in the pocket and found wide receiver Cedrick Wilson Jr., who kept both feet in bounds for a 29-yard gain and a key first down.

Following the two-minute warning, Tagovailoa completed three straight passes to three different receivers, the longest going for 15 yards to Hill. Then, facing third-and-8 on the eighth play of the drive, Tagovailoa found Hill in the back-left corner of the endzone for a 27-yard touchdown to bring Miami back within 7, 17-10 before halftime. Tagovailoa was six-of-six on the drive for 77 yards.

Still down seven later in the third quarter, the Dolphins offense failed to convert on fourth down in Eagles territory but the defense responded in a big way with its second takeaway of the game.

On first down, cornerback Kader Kohou timed his jump perfectly, tipping Hurts' pass in the air and into the hands of linebacker Jerome Baker, who returned the interception 22 yards for his second career pick-six. It tied the game at 17-17 with 4:02 to play.

The tie was short-lived, however, as the Eagles came back with an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive and retook the lead as Hurts found wide receiver A.J. Brown for a 14-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins had the ball in the fourth quarter with a chance to tie the game again, but Eagles cornerback Darius Slay cut in front of a deep pass from Tagovailoa to stall the drive.

The Eagles then marched 83 yards down the field - aided by two quarterback sneaks on fourth-and-1 - in 6:35 of game time and stretched the lead to 31-17 with 4:46 remaining on a three-yard run from running back Kenneth Gainwell for the game's final score.

NEW ENGLAND 17	MIAMI 31

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
New England	7	0	3	7	17
Miami	7	10	7	7	31

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa totaled 324 passing yards and three touchdowns and the Miami Dolphins secured a regular-season sweep of the New England Patriots with a 31-17 victory.

Wide receivers Tyreek Hill (112) and Jaylen Waddle (121) each scored a touchdown and topped 100 receiving yards while cornerback Jalen Ramsey added an interception in his Dolphins debut.

After the two sides combined for three consecutive punts to start the contest, the Patriots came up with the game's first impact play on an interception by safety Kyle Dugger. His 15-yard return gave New England's offense great starting field position at the Miami 30-yard line and eventually led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mac Jones to wide receiver Kendrick Bourne.

But Miami rallied back from the early deficit and scored 17 consecutive points to close out the first half.

Tagovailoa got things started with a deep pass to Hill in the left side of the endzone for a 42-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7-7 just before the end of the first quarter.

Miami's defense then forced its second three-and-out of the afternoon and the offense took the field once again.

A lengthy 14-play, 53-yard drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa to wide receiver Cedrick Wilson Jr., his first as a Dolphin, to give Miami a 14-7 lead with 6:10 to play in the second quarter.

Jalen Ramsey then made sure his Dolphins debut would be a memorable one.

On second-and-9 from the Miami 37-yard line, the six-time Pro Bowl honoree stepped in front of a pass intended for Bourne and returned his first Dolphins interception 49 yards to the Patriots 40-yard line.

Jason Sanders then knocked in a 30-yard field goal to give Miami a 17-7 lead heading into halftime.

That two-score cushion was wiped away quickly, though, as the Dolphins fumbled a handoff on the first play of the second half and Patriots linebacker Anfernee Jennings fell on the loose ball at the Miami 19-yard line. Facing a short field, the Dolphins defense rose to the challenge and forced a 38-yard field goal to keep a 17-10 advantage.

The Dolphins offense responded in a big way on their next drive as Tagovailoa found Hill for a 22-yard gain. He then completed passes to Waddle (23 yards) and wide receiver Chase Claypool (15 yards). A seven-yard completion to tight end Durham Smythe put the ball at the one-yard line and set up Raheem Mostert for his 10th rushing score of the season to give Miami a 24-10 lead with 7:35 to play in the third quarter.

Tagovailoa answered that 81-yard drive with a 10-play 75-yard possession to give Miami a 31-17 lead with 2:43 left on the clock.

He kept the drive alive on third-and-9 with a nine-yard completion to Hill and then finished it off with a pass to a wide-open Waddle for a 31-yard touchdown. Hill and Waddle each recorded 100+ receiving yards for the fifth time as teammates. Linebacker Jaelan Phillips finished with a co-game-high eight tackles and, along with linebacker Bradley Chubb and defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, recorded a sack.

MIAMI 14 | KANSAS CITY 21

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	0	0	14	0	14
Kansas City	7	14	0	0	21

After falling behind 21-0 in the first half, the Dolphins outscored Kansas City 14-0 in the final two quarters but could not find the tying score, falling 21-14 to the Chiefs.

Down seven with under three minutes to play, linebacker Bradley Chubb applied pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes to force an incompletion on third-and-1 and give Miami a final chance to tie the game.

Gains of 25 and 19 yards from running back Raheem Mostert on the first two plays of the following possession moved the ball to the Kansas City 31-yard line, but the Dolphins would get no closer.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa finished 21-of-34 for 193 yards and one touchdown while running back Raheem Mostert ran for 85 yards on 12 carries (7.1 avg.) and added his 11th rushing touchdown of the season.

The Dolphins defense pitched a second-half shutout and limited Mahomes to just 185 passing yards, the seventh-fewest total of his career and the lowest in a game since he passed for 184 yards on Dec. 5, 2021 against Denver.

Kansas City struck first on an 11-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rashee Rice. The Dolphins offense could not match the quick start and punted on their first four possessions.

The Dolphins defense, meanwhile, settled into the game and forced three consecutive Kansas City punts after the opening-drive touchdown. But on their fifth possession, the Chiefs offense marched 95 yards down the field in 8:28 of game time to take a 14-0 lead on a 17-yard pass from Mahomes to running back Jerick McKinnon.

Down two touchdowns, Tagovailoa and the offense got the ball back with 2:31 to play in the first half and looked to have found some rhythm. Running back Salvon Ahmed got things started with a nine-yard run before Tagovailoa found Waddle for 14 yards and wide receiver Tyreek Hill for 19 yards.

But with 47 seconds left on second-and-7 from the Kansas City 30-yard line, the drive came to a screeching halt. Tagovailoa found Hill on a screen pass and before he could take a step forward, Chiefs cornerback Trent McDuffie stripped the ball loose. Safety Mike Edwards recovered and returned the ball four yards before throwing a lateral to fellow safety Bryan Cook, who sprinted down the sideline for a 59-yard touchdown return.

After coming up empty on their first drive of the second half, Tagovailoa and the offense drove 80 yards down the field in eight plays for their first score of the game on a 31-yard pass to wide receiver Cedrick Wilson Jr.

Following the touchdown, it was the Dolphins defense that forced a big turnover. After nearly causing an interception on a tipped pass the play before, linebacker Bradley Chubb broke through multiple attempted blocks by Chiefs offensive linemen and strip-sacked Mahomes. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler fell on the ball at the Kansas City 27-yard line to give the offense another chance to cut into the lead.

Running back Raheem Mostert found the end zone from 13 yards out to cap off that drive, bringing Miami within seven, 21-14, with 22 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

The Dolphins defense forced two punts and allowed just 29 yards on two fourth-quarter possessions by the Chiefs, but the offense could not capitalize.

LAS VEGAS 13	MIAMI 20

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Las Vegas	10	3	0	0	13
Miami	7	7	6	0	20

Despite out-gaining Las Vegas 388-156 through three quarters, the Dolphins only held a 20-13 lead entering the final period. It was Miami's defense that came through in the fourth quarter with two fourth-down stops and two interceptions to seal the victory.

The first interception came with just over three minutes to play on fourth-and-6 from the Miami 24-yard line as pressure from defensive tackle Christian Wilkins on Raiders quarterback Aidan O'Connell led to linebacker Jaelan Phillips' first career pick. Then with under 30 seconds left in the game, cornerback Jalen Ramsey secured his second interception of the day on a leaping grab in the end zone to end the Raiders' comeback hopes.

Miami held Las Vegas to 36 rushing yards on 16 carries (2.3 avg.). It was the Raiders' lowest rushing total in a game since a 24-yard performance against Denver on Oct. 1, 2017.

The Raiders entered Week 11 with the NFL's eighth-best pass defense and had not allowed a 300-yard passer all season. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 205 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone and finished with 325 yards passing for the game.

Wide receiver Tyreek Hill tallied 10 receptions for 146 yards and one touchdown while running back Raheem Mostert was the game's leading rusher with 86 yards on 22 carries (3.9 avg.).

Miami's 40-yard fumble return for a touchdown early in the game was called back on replay review. On the next posession, Las Vegas forced a takeaway that was upheld - a fumble by Tagovailoa - and turned it into a 34-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

The two teams then traded touchdowns as Tagovailoa found Hill for a 38-yard score and O'Connell completed a 46-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Davante Adams to give the Raiders a 10-7 lead just before the end of the first quarter.

Later on in the second quarter, Tagovailoa completed a nifty screen pass to running back Salvon Ahmed, who used a perfectly timed block from offensive lineman Connor Williams to run 11 yards into the end zone untouched for a 14-10 lead.

Raiders kicker Daniel Carlson hit a 47-yard field goal to cut Miami's advantage to one just before halftime.

After Tagovailoa was intercepted on the first play of the third quarter on a deep pass intended for wide receiver Jaylen Waddle, the defense forced a three-and-out to maintain the one-point lead.

On the first play following a missed 50-yard field goal, Ramsey picked off O'Connell. Kicker Jason Sanders knocked through a 41-yard field goal just minutes later to extend the Dolphins lead to 17-13.

Another three-and-out by the Raiders led to another field goal by Sanders to give Miami a 20-13 lead with 30 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Dolphins defense shut down the Raiders rushing attack and picked off O'Connell twice in the final 3+ minutes of action to close out the victory.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	3	14	3	14	34
N.Y. Jets	0	6	0	7	13

The Miami Dolphins outgained the New York Jets by 236 yards, logged 7.0 sacks and recorded two interceptions to secure a 34-13 win.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa passed for 243 yards and extended his league-leading streak to 20 consecutive games with a passing touchdown.

Wide receivers Jaylen Waddle (114) and Tyreek Hill (102 and a touchdown) each eclipsed 100 yards receiving. Running back Raheem Mostert finished with 20 carries for 94 yards (4.7 avg.) and two touchdowns as the Dolphins out-rushed the Jets 167-29.

The Dolphins moved the ball down the field on both of its first-quarter possessions but faced two key fourth-down conversions. On the first possession, a pass from Tagovailoa to Hill fell incomplete on fourth-and-2 from the Jets four-yard line and the Dolphins turned the ball over on downs.

On the second, Miami elected to kick on fourth-and-one from the Jets 20-yard line. Jason Sanders converted a 38-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 3-0 lead with 1:26 left in the first quarter.

Tagovailoa and the offense eventually got into the end zone on their third drive of the game. On third-and-6 from the Jets 38-yard line, Tagovailoa rolled left and completed a pass in between multiple Jets defenders to Waddle for a 20-yard gain.

Two plays later, Tagovailoa threw a quick pass to Hill, who sidestepped a would-be tackle from Jets safety Jordan Whitehead and walked into the end zone from 7 yards out to give Miami a 10-0 lead with 8:21 left in the second quarter.

Later in the period, the Dolphins defense forced a three-and-out and used their final timeout of the half to try and extend their lead before the break.

But on the first play of the following drive, cornerback Brandin Echols intercepted Tagovailoa and ran back the return 30 yards to put the Jets on the board.

Tagovailoa was then intercepted again, this time near midfield, and the Jets came back on the field with two seconds left in the half to attempt a pass into the end zone.

Quarterback Tim Boyle launched the ball to the Dolphins one-yard line, but Holland intercepted the pass and ran the ball back 99 yards to give Miami a 17-6 advantage on the final play of the half.

The Dolphins scored the first points of the second half on a 54-yard field goal by Sanders to take a 20-6 lead with 11:16 to play in the third quarter.

The Jets punted again after just three plays and Miami's offense returned to the field. Nine minutes and three seconds later, Mostert finished off the Dolphins longest drive of the season with a 13-yard run to increase Miami's lead to 27-6.

The Jets scored their first offensive touchdown of the game on a 1-yard pass from Boyle to wide receiver Garrett Wilson but Mostert responded with a 34-yard touchdown run on the Dolphins next drive to close out the 34-13 victory.

SCORING SUMMARY

Washington	0	7	8	0	15

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 215 of his 280 yards passing in the first half and connected with wide receiver Tyreek Hill for two touchdowns of 60+ yards as Miami jumped out to a 31-7 halftime lead and eventually came away with a 45-15 victory over the Washington Commanders Sunday afternoon at FedExField.

Hill finished with five receptions for 157 yards (31.4 avg.) to help the Dolphins move to 9-3 for the first time since 2001.

Running back De'Von Achane added 73 rushing yards and two touchdowns while linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel totaled five tackles (four solo), two passes defensed and a pick-six in his first start since Week 7.

The Dolphins defense held Commanders quarterback Sam Howell, the NFL's leader in passing yards through 12 weeks, to career lows in passing yards (127), yards per pass attempt (5.52), completion percentage (52.2) and passing first downs (5), and a season low in completions (12).

Tagovailoa started the day with a 78-yard touchdown pass to Hill on the team's third offensive play from scrimmage to go up 7-0.

After forcing a second straight punt on defense, the Dolphins drove into Washington territory again and a 49-yard field goal by Jason Sanders gave Miami a 10-0 lead with 3:39 to play in the first quarter.

On the next play from scrimmage, Van Ginkel picked off a screen pass from Howell and ran 33 yards the other way for a touchdown. Miami's 17-0 lead after 15 minutes tied its second-largest since at least 2000.

The Commanders gained just 33 total yards on their first four offensive drives but began to move the ball on their fifth. Howell scored, after two initial goal-line stops by Miami, on a quarterback sneak from the one-yard line to cut the Commanders' deficit to 17-7.

The Dolphins responded quickly. Five plays later, Tagovailoa completed a 60-yard touchdown pass to Hill to put Miami back up 17, 24-7.

After two quick scores on offense, the Dolphins put together an 11-play, 76-yard possession that took up 5:35 of game clock. Miami faced third-and-6 and third-and-12 on the drive but converted both times on passes to Hill for 20 yards and Jaylen Waddle for 16 yards. Running back Raheem Mostert then closed out the half with a one-yard touchdown run, his NFL-best 14th rushing score of the season, to put Miami up 31-7 at the break.

The Dolphins opened the second half with a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive that saw Tagovailoa complete passes to five different receivers. Achane finished things off with a four-yard touchdown run to give Miami a 38-7 lead. Washington answered Achane's touchdown with a nine-play scoring drive of their own when Howell escaped a near-sack and scrambled around multiple Dolphins defenders for his second rushing score of the game. His two-point pass to tight end Logan Thomas made it a 38-15 game with 4:31 left in the third quarter.

The Dolphins capped off an explosive day of offense with a 13-play drive that chewed up 7:50 of fourth-quarter clock. After 11 consecutive runs and a toss to wide receiver River Cracraft, Achane scored his second touchdown on a fourth-and-2 run from the Washington two-yard line to complete the 45-15 win.

WEEK 14

DEC. 11, 2023 | MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

TENNESSEE 28 | MIAMI 27

	1	2	3	4	F
Tennessee	0	10	3	15	28
Miami	7	0	3	17	27

After a back-and-forth offensive struggle through three-plus quarters, momentum swung Miami's way when two Titans fumbles turned into two Dolphins touchdowns and a 27-13 lead with 4:34 left in the game. But Tennessee rallied to score 15 points after that and stopped Miami's offense twice in the final 2:40 to pull off a 28-27 win on Monday Night Football.

The Dolphins offense could not find the end zone for the first 55+ minutes of action. Miscues including a fumble and failed third-down conversion on two trips to the Tennessee two-yard line, along with a blocked field goal, left points off the board and the Titans in the game.

Despite the missed opportunities, Miami still found itself with a two-score lead late in the game thanks to a muffed punt and an errant backwards pass by Tennessee.

The errors gave the Dolphins starting field position inside the Titans 15-yard line on back-to-back drives and running back Raheem Mostert capitalized with two rushing touchdowns in a span of 60 seconds.

The lead did not last long though as Titans quarterback Will Levis led a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive in 1:54 (plus a two-point conversion), and a four-play, 64-yard scoring drive in 26 seconds to take a 28-27 lead with 1:49 to play.

Miami, meanwhile, went three-and-out and was stopped on fourth down on its last two possessions.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa completed 23-of-33 passes for 240 yards. Mostert rushed for 96 yards on 21 attempts (4.6 avg.) and tied Ricky Williams (16 in 2002) for the most rushing touchdowns in a season in franchise history.

The Dolphins defense started strong with a three-and-out on the game's opening possession and a turnover on the next. On third-and-11, defensive tackle Zach Sieler jumped in front of a quick pass intended for Titans running back Tyjae Spears and ran it back five yards for the Dolphins' fourth pick-six of the season and third in as many games.

In the second quarter, Titans running back Derrick Henry capped off a 14-play, 86-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat formation to tie the game at 7-7 with 6:53 left in the half. Each team then had field goal opportunities later in the period. Miami's 44-yard attempt was blocked and Tennessee's kick went through the uprights from 28 yards away to give the Titans a 10-7 lead entering halftime.

Kicker Jason Sanders converted a 20-yard field goal to tie the game at 10-10 but the Titans answered with a 23-yard field goal to retake a three-point lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, Miami again marched the ball inside the Titans 10-yard line. The offense would not get any closer though. Sanders' 31-yard field goal tied the game again at 13-13 with 12:37 to play.

The Dolphins went on to score 14 straight points but surrendered 15 on the Titans last two possessions to drop to 9-4 on the season and 5-1 at home.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa threw for 224 yards and a touchdown, wide receiver Jaylen Waddle and running back Raheem Mostert combined for three scores and the Dolphins defense posted its first shutout of the season in a dominant 30-0 win over the New York Jets.

With the NFL's receiving yards leader wide receiver Tyreek Hill sidelined due to injury, Waddle rose to the occasion with eight receptions for 142 yards (17.8 avg.) and a touchdown. Tagovailoa completed 21 of his 24 passes (87.5 percent).

Mostert added two rushing touchdowns to set new franchise records for total touchdowns scored in season (20) and rushing touchdowns in a season (18).

Linebacker Bradley Chubb tied his career high in tackles (7) and sacks (3.0) and set a new career-high with two forced fumbles to help the Dolphins secure their first shutout win since a 24-0 victory over the Jets on Oct. 18, 2020.

Miami's defense held the Jets to just 103 total yards, the second-fewest yards allowed by the Dolphins in franchise history, and did not allow a rushing first down for the first time since Sept. 30, 2012 against Arizona.

Just six days removed from his early-first-quarter pick-six against Tennessee, defensive tackle Zach Sieler made another big play on the Jets opening drive to get things started for Miami. On first-and-10 from the Jets 24-yard line, linebacker Bradley Chubb and defensive tackle Christian Wilkins strip-sacked quarterback Zach Wilson and Sieler recovered the ball at the four-yard line before getting tackled at the one-yard line.

On third-and-goal, Mostert took the handoff from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, cut to the outside and ran into the end zone untouched to break wide receiver Mark Clayton's 39-year record of 18 touchdowns scored in 1984, and running back Ricky Williams' record of 16 rushing touchdowns set in 2002.

Several minutes later on fourth-and-4 from their own 42-yard line, the Jets tried to fake a punt with a direct snap to safety Ashtyn Davis but he was stopped for a one-yard loss by Wilkins and fellow defensive tackle Raekwon Davis.

Miami turned the short field position into a 37-yard field goal from Jason Sanders to take a 10-0 lead with 13:56 to play in the second quarter. Later in the period, Sieler sacked Wilson for a six-yard loss and forced the Jets to punt for the third straight possession.

On the Dolphins next play from scrimmage, Waddle got behind Jets cornerback D.J. Reed on a deep route and Tagovailoa placed the ball perfectly in stride for a 60-yard touchdown pass to extend Miami's lead to 17-0 with 7:42 remaining in the half.

Another Jets punt led to an 11-play, 80-yard drive that resulted in a Mostert rushing touchdown and a 24-0 Miami lead with just over a minute before the halftime break. The Dolphins outgained the Jets 197-4 in the first half and tallied 5.0 sacks, which tied the franchise's most in the first half of a game since at least 1991.

New York did not enter the red zone in the game and moved the ball into Dolphins territory on just two of their 10 possessions.

Sanders added two field goals in the second half to finish off the 30-0 win.

Safety Brandon Jones tallied five tackles and two interceptions and six Dolphins defenders recorded at least a half-sack. Miami held the Jets to 23 rushing yards, the lowest rushing output in any game by an NFL team this season.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	3	10	6	3	22

Kicker Jason Sanders hadn't attempted five field goals in a game since 2020. In a Christmas Eve showdown between two 10-4 teams, he converted all five of his kicks, three from over 50 yards out and the fifth from 29 yards away as time expired to give Miami a thrilling 22-20 victory over the Dallas Cowboys and clinch the team's second consecutive playoff berth.

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa was 4-of-5 for 31 yards on the game-winning drive and running back Jeff Wilson Jr. rushed for 14 yards and a key first down on three carries to help run out the clock to set up Sanders and give Miami its first 11-win season since 2008.

The Dolphins defense sacked Cowboys quarterback Dak Prescott four times and began the game with a huge turnover when safety Brandon Jones recovered Prescott's fumble on first-and-goal from the 1-yard line.

That turnover led to Sanders' first made field goal of the night, a career-long 57-yard kick.

Dallas quickly responded though as Prescott started his next drive with a 22-yard completion to Lamb, who ended the drive two plays later on a 49-yard catch and run that gave Dallas a 7-3 lead with 1:30 left in the first quarter.

After that quick touchdown, it was Miami that took control of the game and outgained Dallas 128-8 in the second quarter.

Another Sanders field goal and a 4-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa to running back Raheem Mostert just before halftime gave Miami a 13-7 cushion at the break.

Sanders then connected on a 54-yard field goal to put the Dolphins back up nine, 16-7 with 8:59 to play in the third quarter.

It was the first of four straight field goals - two from each team - in the second half. Cowboys kicker Brandon Aubrey answered with a 43-yard kick to cut Dallas' deficit to 16-10 with 5:28 to play in the third quarter.

A 35-yard field goal from Sanders followed by a 33-yard boot from Aubrey kept Miami's lead at six points with 12:31 remaining in the game.

The Dolphins' opportunity to regain a two-score lead came and went in three plays and the defense returned to the field. Dallas then went on a lengthy 17-play, 69-yard scoring drive that took up 7:39 of game time.

On the Cowboys' seventh play inside the Miami 7-yard line, Prescott found wide receiver Brandin Cooks in the left corner of the end zone for an eight-yard touchdown pass to take a 20-19 lead with 3:27 left in the game.

Tagovailoa, who completed 24-of-37 passes (64.9 pct.) for 293 yards and one touchdown, then orchestrated his eighth-career game-winning drive (12 plays and 64 yards) and for the second time in two years, Sanders used his leg to send Miami to the postseason.

WEEK 17

DEC. 31, 2023 | BALTIMORE, MD.
M&T BANK STADIUM
ATTENDANCE: 71,196 | TV: CBS

MIAMI 19 | BALTIMORE 56

SCORING SUMMARY

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	10	3	0	6	19
Baltimore	7	21	7	21	56

Miami traveled to M&T Bank Stadium hoping to knock off a Baltimore Ravens squad with the best record in the NFL. Through 15 minutes, the Dolphins were moving the ball well on offense, had forced a punt on defense and led 10-7. With just over three minutes to play in the first half, Miami no longer led, but trailed just 14-13 after a field goal from kicker Jason Sanders. That's when the game unraveled.

The Dolphins offense stalled and Baltimore scored 21 straight points in under 4:30 of game time spanning from the end of the first half to the start of the third quarter to open up a 35-13 lead.

Miami got back within two possessions early in the fourth quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to running back De'Von Achane, but would not get any closer. The Ravens added three touchdowns in the final 10 minutes to win 56-19.

Tagovailoa passed for 237 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions while Achane tallied 14 carries for a game-high 107 yards (7.6 avg.) and added four receptions for 30 yards (7.5 avg.) and a touchdown, his 10th total score of the season.

Wide receiver Tyreek Hill led Miami with six receptions for 76 yards (12.7 avg.), bringing his season total to 1,717, a new franchise record.

The Dolphins got the quick start they were looking for as four of the team's first five offensive plays went for 12+ yards. Tagovailoa then delivered an eight-yard pass to wide receiver Cedrick Wilson Jr. on third-and-goal to put Miami up 7-0.

Baltimore responded immediately with a similarly efficient drive and quarterback Lamar Jackson tied the game with a 20-yard touchdown pass to Justice Hill.

Just as Miami looked like it would score another quick touchdown on its second drive, Baltimore caught a break as Hill beat his defender but bobbled a would-be touchdown catch.

Miami settled for a 27-yard field goal to go up 10-7 with 3:39 left to play in the first quarter.

After Baltimore took the lead on a one-yard run from running back Gus Edwards, Sanders connected on his second field goal - this one from 38 yards out - to cut Miami's deficit to 14-13 with just over three minutes remaining in the half.

Baltimore then forced three takeaways and used a strong display from Jackson, who finished with five touchdown passes and a perfect 158.3 passer rating, to outscore Miami 42-6 the rest of the way and get the win.

BUFFALO 21 | MIAMI 14

	1	2	3	4	F
Buffalo	0	7	0	14	21
Miami	0	14	0	0	14

The Miami Dolphins came into Sunday night's regular season finale with a chance to clinch the AFC East and the two seed in the AFC Playoffs. Entering the fourth quarter, that goal was well within reach. The Dolphins defense had just forced their third turnover of the game and a 15-yard pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Tyreek Hill gave the offense first-and-10 at its own 42-yard line with a 14-7 lead and 15 minutes left to play.

But penalties quickly forced a punt, which Buffalo wide receiver Deonte Harty returned 96 yards to tie the game.

Miami's next possession lasted three plays and picked up just one yard and the Bills marched down the field for what would end up being the game-winning touchdown.

The Dolphins built their 14-7 halftime lead through a balanced offensive attack and opportunistic defensive play that resulted in two interceptions in the end zone and another goal line stop.

Tagovailoa was an efficient 9-of-13 for 123 yards passing, one touchdown and one interception in the first half. Miami also posted its second-most carries (17) and tied its third-most rushing yards (101) in the first half of a game this season. In the second half, however, the Dolphins managed just seven rushing yards on three attempts.

The offense ended the first half with back-to-back touchdown drives but was shut out in the second half, as they were outgained 187-57 and were 0-for-4 on third down over the final 30 minutes.

The first quarter ended 0-0 after the two team's four offensive drives ended in three interceptions and one punt.

The Dolphins broke a scoreless tie on their third drive of the game when rookie running back De'Von Achane rushed to the right, made a defender miss and continued all the way to the end zone for a 25-yard touchdown, his 11th total score this season.

The Bills tied the game with 4:31 left in the half on a broken play as quarterback Josh Allen's pass ricocheted off linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel's helmet and into the hands of wide receiver Trent Sherfield, who kept both feet in bounds for a six-yard touchdown grab.

With Buffalo receiving the second-half kickoff, the Dolphins offense embarked on a crucial drive towards the end of the second quarter.

Coming out of the two-minute warning, Tagovailoa faced a key third-and-three from the Buffalo 36-yard line and completed a 24-yard pass to wide receiver Cedrick Wilson Jr. to move the chains.

An eight-yard completion to Hill set up third-and-one from the Buffalo three-yard line. Tagovailoa went right back to Hill with a quick pass to the right side of the end zone to put Miami up 14-7 with 1:43 remaining before halftime.

Buffalo then moved the ball down to Miami's 11-yard line with 11 seconds left but would not score. Allen fired a pass to running back Tyler Johnson who was dragged down by cornerback Eli Apple and hit by linebacker Jerome Baker just shy of the goal line. With no timeouts left, the Bills could not get on the ball in time to stop the clock and the half ended with the Dolphins up seven.

Miami could not carry that momentum into the final two periods, however, as its five second-half drives resulted in four punts and an interception.

Buffalo scored the last 14 points of the game on Harty's punt return and a five-yard touchdown pass from Allen to tight end Dawson Knox to get the win.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	0	7	0	0	7
Kansas City	7	9	3	7	26

The Miami Dolphins season came to a close at Arrowhead Stadium with a 26-7 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Miami showed its big-play ability on offense early in the second quarter with a 53-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Tyreek Hill, but otherwise struggled to move the ball against a Chiefs defense that finished the regular season ranked second in the NFL in total defense, scoring defense and sacks.

The Dolphins defense managed to hold Kansas City to just two touchdowns and kept the Chiefs lead to single digits for almost three and a half quarters.

The Dolphins could not claw back, however, as the offense finished just 1-for-12 on third down.

Hill led Miami in receiving with five catches for 62 yards (12.4 avg.) and scored the team's lone touchdown.

Despite allowing an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Patrick Mahomes to wide receiver Rashee Rice on the Chiefs' first drive of the night, Miami's strong red zone defense from that point on kept the game within reach.

Down 13-7 with a chance to end the first half with a score and begin the second half with the ball, the Dolphins came up empty after a false start and a sack pushed the offense back 10 yards and forced a punt.

It was the first of three consecutive punts for Miami's offense from the end of the first half to the start of the third quarter. Those three drives gave the Chiefs an opportunity to extend their lead and they took full advantage.

Harrison Butker kicked his third field goal of the game with 18 seconds left in the first half and his fourth field goal on Kansas City's first drive of the second half. The Chiefs then followed up that 13-play scoring drive to start the half with a 14-play touchdown drive - both of which went for 69+ yards and took up a combined 12:33 of game clock - to open up a 26-7 lead and come away with the victory.

Rice and tight end Travis Kelce saw 22 of Kansas City's 34 targets and accounted for 201 of Mahomes' 262 passing yards.

Tagovailoa was 20-of-39 for 199 passing yards, one touchdown and one interception in his playoff debut while linebacker Duke Riley finished with a co-game-high 10 tackles.

STEPHEN ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: 16TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 16TH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies, the most prominent privately-owned real estate firm in the United States, first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008, and in 2009, assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams -- Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His $730 million investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer. From world-class dining to arts, culture and luxury hospitality, Hard Rock Stadium now delivers an elevated guest experience that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of the privately-funded renovation, Hard Rock Stadium attracted and secured Super Bowl LIV – which coincided with the 100th season of the NFL – the 2021 and 2026 College Football Playoff National Championships, Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, 2026 FIFA World Cup, major concerts, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events.

With football, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, support staff and players the necessary resources to build a winning team that will compete consistently for championships. He invested $135 million into the state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex, which opened in July 2021. Completed by Moss Construction with interior design by Rockwell Group and architecture by ROSSETTI, the 217,200 square-foot best-in-class venue was meticulously planned to create a contemporary, welcoming training environment for coaches, players, and staff. It includes a 92,200 square foot indoor field, two full natural grass outdoor fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, cryotherapy and isolation tanks and much more.

In the inaugural NFLPA Player Team Report Cards survey issued in 2023, which scored the player experience in a variety of categories, the Dolphins ranked second of 32 teams overall. As a result of Ross' investment, the Dolphins scored an A-or-higher rating in seven of the eight areas, including A+ scores in weight room, strength coaches, training room, training staff and locker room. Ross has also invested in the players' personal and professional development off the field, creating and funding the Dolphins Business Combine, an annual three-day event which allows players to meet with business leaders across a variety of industries and receive training on topics like personal finance, real estate and investments.

In 2016, Ross named Chris Grier as general manager and in 2019 gave him full control of football operations. The team has quickly improved under Grier's leadership, including four consecutive winning seasons, marking a first for the franchise since 2000-03. In 2022, Ross made an innovative hire at head coach, selecting Mike McDaniel, who at the time had not received a head coach interview request from another team. Ross identified McDaniel's ingenuity, authentic leadership and outside-the-box thinking as notable traits for a head coach, and in his first two years with the franchise, McDaniel led the team to the playoffs, something Miami had not done in more than 20 years.

Ross, as a sports entrepreneur, is known for his attention to detail and thinking outside the box. He is responsible for orchestrating El Clásico Miami – the first-ever match between archrivals FC Barcelona and Real Madrid C.F. in North America – which stands as the highest revenue grossing soccer match in U.S. history. When the Miami Open tennis tournament began to explore leaving its long-time home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium, building a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities.

In April 2021, Ross became the Chairman and Owner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix. The circuit is 5.41km, has 19 corners, three straights and three DRS zones with an estimated top speed of 320km/h. Hard Rock Stadium sits at the heart of the circuit. Ross and Managing Partner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, Vice Chairman and CEO Tom Garfinkel worked with specialist designers to create a racetrack that provides great racing and unique fan experiences that are reflective of the diverse and dynamic nature of Miami. The inaugural race was named the Best New Event of 2022 by the Sports Business Journal, and in its first two years, the event has delivered an estimated economic impact of nearly $800 million to the South Florida community.

Ross is deeply committed to supporting and uniting the community that supports the Dolphins. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised more than $64 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Challenge Cancer. In June 2020, Ross and the Miami Dolphins Foundation announced a year-long Food Relief Program with a $3 million investment and an additional $1 million from the Lennar Foundation. The initiative provided 1,000 meals each day from Centerplate and local minority-owned restaurants to churches, community groups and those in need during the pandemic.

In August 2019, Ross was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The organization's efforts have been so impactful that RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award. The award celebrates those who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, working with groups to improve relationships and foster understanding. In February 2020, the Miami Dolphins were honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity. Ross was among Sports Business Journal's Leaders in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring honorees in March 2021.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
NFL: 29TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 24TH SEASON

Chris Grier is the general manager of the Miami Dolphins, a title he's held since 2016, and oversees personnel and all football operations for the club. The 2023 campaign marked his 24th season with the franchise, rising from area scout to national scout, director of college scouting and general manager during that time.

Miami has quickly made strides in the five years since Grier took over football operations. The Dolphins have posted four consecutive winning seasons from 2020-23, marking the first time the franchise has done this in more than 20 years. The Dolphins also reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons in 2022 and 2023, something Miami hadn't done since 2000-01.

Grier has utilized all avenues to acquire talented players. Of the 22 starters on the 2023 Dolphins roster, just over half (12) of them were drafted by Miami. Grier acquired nearly a third of the starters (6) via free agency and also added impact players via trade (wide receiver Tyreek Hill, linebacker Bradley Chubb and cornerback Jalen Ramsey) and waivers (defensive tackle Zach Sieler).

The 2023 Dolphins won 11 games for the first time since 2008. Miami led the NFL in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994 and ranked second in scoring offense (29.2). Miami also had a top 10 defense (10th, 318.3 yards allowed per game) for the first time since 2010. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa, who Grier selected fifth overall in the 2020 NFL Draft, became the first Dolphin to lead the league in passing yards (4,624) since 1992 (Dan Marino). Hill, who Grier swung a blockbuster trade for in 2022, became the first Dolphin to ever lead the league in receiving yards (1,799), which was a new single-season franchise record, surpassing his own mark of 1,710 from 2022. Running back Raheem Mostert, a free agent signing in 2022, also broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (23).

Tagovailoa (4,624 passing yards), Mostert (1,012 rushing yards), Hill (1,799 receiving yards) and wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (1,014 receiving yards), who was drafted by Grier with the sixth overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft, all hit major yardage milestones in 2023. It was the first time in Dolphins history the team had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Mostert became the oldest 1,000-yard rusher in the NFL since 2018 (Adrian Peterson) and Waddle became the first player in team history with three straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Defensively, the Dolphins shattered the team sacks record of 49.0 (1983 and 2005) with 56.0 sacks. Sieler, who Grier claimed off waivers from Baltimore in 2019, became the first Dolphins defensive tackle to ever top double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. Sieler was signed to a contract extension shortly before the 2023 season. Chubb, who Grier traded for during the 2022 season, had 11.0 sacks, the most by a Dolphin since 2017 (Cameron Wake). It was the first time Miami had teammates with double-digit sacks in the same season since 2003.

Grier put together a 2023 roster that included 10 different players with a combined 33 Pro Bowl appearances, and six of the NFL's top 100 players according to the NFL's Top 100 list, as voted by the players.

Miami had six players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2023, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fourth-most in the NFL. Three of those selections were first-time Pro Bowl players in Tagovailoa, Mostert and fullback Alec Ingold, who Miami also signed as a free agent in 2022 and was extended at the start of the 2023 season. Hill was a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection and named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl. Grier traded for Ramsey in the 2023 offseason and he earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection despite missing the first seven games of the season due to injury. Miami's sixth Pro Bowl selection was tackle Terron Armstead, who Grier signed as an unrestricted free agent in 2022 and has been a captain and Pro Bowl selection in both seasons with the Dolphins.

The Dolphins finished the 2022 season with a 9-8 record and secured a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 and just the third time in the past 20 seasons. With a talented roster and under new head coach Mike McDaniel, the Dolphins finished with a top 10 total offense for the first time since 1995, ranking sixth (364.5 yards per game). Miami was second in yards per play (6.1) and fourth in passing offense (265.4) despite starting three different quarterbacks for multiple games for the first time since 2007 and playing the third-most difficult schedule (.537) in the NFL.

Tagovailoa had his best season to date in 2022, becoming the youngest NFL quarterback since Dan Marino in 1984 to lead the league in passer rating (105.5). Tagovailoa also led the NFL in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9).

In Hill's first season with the team, he shattered his career highs and the franchise's single-season records for receiving yards (1,710) and receptions (119), finishing second in the league in both. His 1,710 receiving yards were 321 more than the previous Dolphins record that stood for nearly 40 years (Mark Clayton, 1,389 yards in 1984). It was also the most receiving yards by any player in NFL history on his first season with a new team. He earned first-team All-Pro honors and was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl.

Grier selected Waddle in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft (sixth overall) and he put together one of the best seasons by a receiver in Dolphins history in 2022 following a historic rookie campaign in 2021. Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns. His 18.1 yards per catch led the NFL while his 1,356 receiving yards were third in Dolphins history.

Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history.

Miami's defense also had success in 2022 as it finished fourth in the league in rush defense (103.0). Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, who Grier drafted in the first round (13th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft, recorded a career-high 98 tackles. His 98 stops were the most in a season by an NFL defensive lineman since 1994. Linebacker Jaelan Phillips, a first-round pick (18th overall) of Grier's in 2021, led the team in sacks for the second straight season with 7.0. Cornerback Xavien Howard (2016, second round) earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2021, the Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Grier helped construct a defensive unit that featured eight starters drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 starters under the age of 30. The group scored five defensive touchdowns, its most in a single season since 2001. Miami swept New England for the first time since 2000 and had two AFC East sweeps (N.Y. Jets) for the first time since 2016.

Miami's 2021 draft class earned key roles immediately as four players were regular starters as rookies. Waddle broke the NFL's rookie receptions record, a mark that had stood for nearly 20 years, with 104 catches and became the first rookie in Dolphins history to total 1,000 receiving yards. Phillips broke Miami's rookie sack record and finished second among all NFL rookies in the statistic with 8.5. Safety Jevon Holland was the only player in the AFC in 2021 to have multiple sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries. Offensive lineman Liam Eichenberg was one of just 10 NFL rookie offensive linemen to start at least 16 games.

Howard earned his third Pro Bowl selection in 2021 after intercepting five passes and scoring two defensive touchdowns. He became the eighth player in team history to have at least five interceptions in three different seasons. Wilkins totaled 89 tackles, which was tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 before he topped that figure in 2022.

In 2020, the Dolphins won 10 games for just the second time in the past decade despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The five-game improvement from 2019 was tied for the best in the league that season and tied for the third-best in team history. The Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that year, including eight in one game in a Week 15 win vs. New England.

With several offseason additions, Grier helped build one of the NFL's best defenses in 2020. Miami led the league in third-down defense (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

Two of Grier's draft picks – Howard and kicker Jason Sanders (2018, seventh round) earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, marking the first time since 2006 (Zach Thomas and Jason Taylor) the Dolphins had two first-team All-Pro honorees in the same season. Defensive tackle Raekwon Davis was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team after Grier selected him in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

In 2019, the Dolphins steadily improved despite having the youngest roster in the NFL, winning five of their final nine games. Wilkins led all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by an NFL rookie defensive lineman since 2015.

From 2016-18, Grier oversaw the draft and both pro and college scouting departments. In those three drafts, Grier selected seven different players who wound up earning top 10 contracts at their respective positions during their playing careers. He was responsible for the acquisition of multiple All-Pro and Pro Bowl players including Howard, Sanders, wide receiver/returner Jakeem Grant, tackle Laremy Tunsil and safety Minkah Fitzpatrick. Other notable selections included linebacker Jerome Baker and running back Kenyan Drake.

Baker was a third-round pick in 2018 and finished his rookie season tied for 11th among NFL rookies in tackles (76). He quickly took on a leadership role and was elected a team captain in 2019, just his second season in the league. Baker later became the first Dolphins player since at least 2000 to record 500-plus tackles in his first five seasons in the league.

In 2017, the Dolphins finished the season with 10 rookies on the active roster and four more on injured reserve or non-football illness lists. Miami was one of just three teams to play eight rookies on defense and one of just six to have at least four rookies start games on defense. Six undrafted rookie free agents contributed to the team that season. Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux finished his rookie campaign fourth among all NFL defensive linemen with 40 tackles (26 solo), despite being a fifth-round pick.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected Howard in the second round. In seven NFL seasons, Howard has earned a first-team All-Pro nod (2020), been selected to the Pro Bowl four times (2018, 2020-22), led the NFL in interceptions in one season (2020), tied for the NFL lead in interceptions in another (2018) and totaled more interceptions since he entered the league than any other NFL player.

The team also drafted Drake and Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season. In 2020, Grant earned second-team All-Pro honors as a returner.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered numerous Pro Bowl players. During that time, the Dolphins drafted seven players that combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015, 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier was also successful at finding value late in drafts. Jones, a fifth-round pick in 2010, was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, serving as a regional scout until he joined the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells and legendary coaches Bill Belichick, Pete Carroll and Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, is currently the general manager of the NHL's San Jose Sharks. When Michael was appointed to the position in 2022, he became the first Black general manager in NHL history. Before his tenure in front offices, he played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier and his wife, Paige, have two sons, Landon and Jackson.

MIKE McDANIEL

HEAD COACH
COLLEGE: YALE
NFL: 17TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP 2016, 2019

Mike McDaniel was named the 11th head coach in team history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2023 season marked McDaniel's 17th in the NFL and second as a head coach.

McDaniel has led Miami to the postseason in each of his two seasons (2022-23) as head coach, becoming just the third coach in Dolphins history to do so in his first two seasons, joining Don Shula (1970-71) and Dave Wannstedt (2000-01). It was Miami's first back-to-back playoff appearance since 2000-01. The Dolphins' 11 wins in 2023 marked their first 11-win season in 15 years.

Miami has made big strides in two years under McDaniel. In 2023, the Dolphins led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994, with McDaniel serving as the offensive play-caller. The unit also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59), while finishing second in scoring offense (29.2). Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in passing yards (4,624), something a Miami quarterback had not done since 1992 (Dan Marino). Running back Raheem Mostert (1,012) had his first 1,000-yard rushing season at 31 years old and broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18), which stood since 2002 (Ricky Williams), and total touchdowns (21), which stood since 1984 (Mark Clayton). Wide receiver Tyreek Hill (1,799) had the seventh-most receiving yards in NFL history and broke his own team record set a season ago. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (1,014) became the first player in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. It was the first time in team history that Miami had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

McDaniel helped six Dolphins reach the Pro Bowl – Hill, Tagovailoa, Mostert, fullback Alec Ingold, tackle Terron Armstead and cornerback Jalen Ramsey – something the team had not accomplished since 2002. It was Tagovailoa's first career Pro Bowl and the first Dolphins quarterback to be selected since Dan Marino in 1995. Ingold and Mostert also earned their first career Pro Bowl nods. In addition to his eighth straight Pro Bowl, Hill earned unanimous first-team All-Pro honors.

Miami's defense also improved in McDaniel's second season. The unit finished in the top 10 in total defense (10th, 318.3) for the first time since 2010. Miami posted a team-record 56.0 sacks and defensive tackle Zach Sieler became the first defensive tackle in Dolphins history with double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. Miami had a sack in all 17 regular-season games and had four interceptions returned for a touchdown, the second-most in single-season team history. The Dolphins had a takeaway in 12 consecutive games to finish the season, including the playoff game.

In his first season at the helm, McDaniel became the fifth coach in Dolphins history to lead his team to the playoffs and just the sixth to post a winning record (9-8) in his first year. Under his leadership, four players earned Pro Bowl selections – Armstead, Hill, linebacker Bradley Chubb and cornerback Xavien Howard. It marked the team's most Pro Bowl selections since 2016. McDaniel led the team to a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 despite starting three different quarterbacks throughout the season.

As the offensive play-caller, McDaniel helped the Dolphins offense finish in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Miami averaged 364.5 yards per game, which ranked sixth in the league, and 6.14 yards per play, which was second. The Dolphins finished 11th in scoring offense (23.4 points per game), the team's best finish since 2014.

Several players had the best seasons of their career in their first year in McDaniel's offense. Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5), becoming the youngest NFL quarterback to do that since Dan Marino in 1984. He also led the league in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9). Tagovailoa's 3,548 passing yards and 25 passing touchdowns were both career highs.

Hill broke an NFL record for most receiving yards in a player's first season with a new team with 1,710. That mark also broke Miami's single-season franchise record that stood for nearly 40 years (Mark Clayton, 1,389 yards in 1984). Hill's 119 receptions were also a Dolphins record and those two totals ranked second in the NFL in 2022. Hill earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

Another player who thrived in McDaniel's offense was Waddle. In his second NFL season, Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns, leading the league in yards per reception (18.1). His 1,356 receiving yards were third in single-season team history behind Hill and Clayton. Waddle nearly doubled his yards after catch under McDaniel, averaging 6.7 YAC per reception in 2022 compared to 3.5 in 2021.

Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history and more than two entire teams had in 2022.

Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in run defense, limiting opponents to 103.0 rushing yards per game. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins played a big role in that as he totaled a career-high 98 tackles. His 98 stops were the most by an NFL defensive lineman in a season since 1994. Linebacker Elandon Roberts (104) and Sieler (70) also set career highs in tackles.

Prior to Miami, McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021.

In McDaniel's first season as offensive coordinator, the 49ers finished seventh in the NFL in total offense (375.7 yards per game) and 13th in scoring offense (25.1 points per game) while advancing to the NFC Championship game. San Francisco's offense was balanced, ranking seventh in rushing (127.4) and 12th in passing (248.3). Wide receiver Deebo Samuel recorded 1,405 receiving yards, the most by a 49er since wide receiver Terrell Owens in 2001, and fifth-most in the NFL that season. The 49ers offense had four players earn Pro Bowl selections – Samuel, fullback Kyle Juszczyk, tight end George Kittle and tackle Trent Williams. Williams also earned All-Pro honors.

McDaniel served as San Francisco's run game coordinator from 2018-20. During that time, the 49ers were fifth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 127.0 yards per game, despite having a different leading rusher in all three seasons.

In 2020, San Francisco had several injuries at the running back position and still finished in the top half of the league with 118.1 rushing yards per game. Juszczyk and Williams earned Pro Bowl selections and Williams was also named All-Pro.

McDaniel helped the 49ers have one of the league's most effective rushing attacks in 2019 as San Francisco went 13-3, winning the NFC and advancing to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers had the NFL's second-ranked rushing offense, averaging 144.1 yards per game. Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

In 2018, the 49ers had four different backs rush for at least 200 yards. Matt Breida's 5.32 yards per carry ranked fourth among all NFL players that season. The 49ers finished 13th in the league in rushing (118.9). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

As run game specialist in 2017, McDaniel helped the 49ers rush for 1,662 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns in a season where they were forced to use three different starting quarterbacks due to injury. Juszczyk and tackle Joe Staley earned Pro Bowl selections.

Prior to San Francisco, McDaniel spent two seasons (2015-16) as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons. During his tenure, the Falcons had the second-best total offense (394.9) and third-best scoring offense (27.5) in the NFL. Atlanta's passing attack ranked second (284.5).

In 2016, Atlanta led the NFL in scoring, averaging 33.8 points per game, en route to finishing 11-5 and winning the NFC to advance to Super Bowl LI. The Falcons had the second-best total offense (415.8), third-best passing offense (295.3) and fifth-best rushing offense (120.5). Quarterback Matt Ryan passed for a franchise-record 4,944 yards, which was second in the NFL that season. Wide receiver Julio Jones was second in the league with 1,409 receiving yards. Four different Falcons earned Pro Bowl selections – Ryan, Jones, running back Devonta Freeman and center Alex Mack. Ryan, Jones and Mack also earned All-Pro honors.

The 2015 Falcons offense ranked sixth in passing (273.7) and seventh in total offense (374.1). Jones led the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards, a Falcons franchise record. Freeman, Jones and fullback Patrick DiMarco all earned Pro Bowl selections and All-Pro honors.

McDaniel spent the 2014 season as wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his lone season there, wide receiver Andrew Hawkins had a career-high 824 yards. His receivers unit helped quarterback Brian Hoyer post the only 3,000-yard passing season of his career.

McDaniel's first job as an NFL position coach came in 2013 with Washington when he was promoted to wide receivers coach. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon had the best season of his 11-year NFL career, leading the NFL with 113 receptions.

McDaniel spent the 2011-12 seasons with Washington as an offensive assistant. On those staffs, McDaniel worked with current NFL head coaches Matt LaFleur (Green Bay), Sean McVay (L.A. Rams) and Kyle Shanahan (San Francisco).

In 2012, Washington led the league in rushing (169.3) and finished 10-6, winning the NFC East. The team was fourth in scoring offense (27.3) and fifth in total offense (383.2). Running back Alfred Morris rushed for 1,613 yards as a rookie selected in the sixth round. It was the third-highest rushing total by a rookie in NFL history and he earned second-team All-Pro honors.

From 2009-10, McDaniel served as running backs coach for the Sacramento Mountain Lions of the United Football League, where he worked for former NFL head coach, Dennis Green.

McDaniel was an offensive assistant for the Houston Texans from 2006-08 where he worked under three different offensive coordinators in three seasons – Troy Calhoun (2006), Mike Sherman (2007) and Kyle Shanahan (2008).

His first NFL coaching position came as a coaching intern with the Denver Broncos in 2005.

A native of Greeley, Colorado, McDaniel played wide receiver at Yale, where he graduated with a degree in history. He and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Ayla.
